About Us

The Earlysville Volunteer Fire Company has been protecting and serving the citizens of Earlysville and northern Albemarle County since 1965. Today, the fire company provides emergency services to an area that is nearly 100 square miles. The Earlysville Volunteer Fire Company serves the community with pride. Our goal is to protect homes and businesses, to render help to those in need of medical attention, and to protect and save lives.

We are always looking for new volunteers to support the community where they live, work and play.

Join Us

The Earlysville Volunteer Fire Company is always looking for new volunteers.

...as a Firefighter

Firefighters respond to structure fires, brush fires, car fires, hazardous materials incidents, and motor vehicle collisions. We'll provide your training free-of-charge to become a volunteer firefighter.

...as an Emergency Medical Technician (EMT)

EMTs respond to emergency medical calls, motor vehicle accidents, fires, and specialized rescue situations. We'll provide your training free-of-charge to become a volunteer EMT.

...as a Support Member

Are you interested in helping your community but responding to emergencies isn't for you? Then, volunteer as a support member and you can help us with a variety of administrative and support tasks.

...as a Junior Member

If you are age 16 to 18, you can volunteer as a junior member. The Earlysville junior firefighters are hard-working and knowledgeable young men and women. We host a county-wide Junior Firefighter Academy every summer.
